New York 22, N. Y.

Dear Frank:

When I talked with you last, you indicated an interest in my remarks to the Joint Economic Committee in connection with its studies on U. S. and Soviet economies. I am enclosing a copy of the testimony taken by the Committee on this subject and, for your information, I have marked the portion which deals with my statements and that of my associates.

As you will see from the hearings, Congressman Belling's Subcommittee gathered together papers from a number of outstanding individuals. I am sure you will find their opinions and conclusions of interest.

Sincerely,
